

PUTNAM COUNTY HERALD

VOLUME IX.

COOKEVILLE, TENNESSEE, THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1911.

NUMBER 14.

Mt. View Lodge, No. 179, I. O. O. F. met at the usual hour April 1st, 1911, J. M. Haynes, N. G., presiding, with a good attendance. Quite a lot of routine business was disposed of.

The sick brothers were reported a little better. Bro. J. H. Hodge was reported quite sick for a week, but is better now. Bro. J. M. Brown, reported himself as getting tolerably well with his broken arm.

The initiatory was conferred upon one applicant in good style. The first degree was given to three applicants. Three petitions for initiation were presented, read and referred to committee of investigation.

Unfortunately the committee on program of the celebration of the 92nd anniversary of the order were not ready to report, and further time was granted.

Bro. L. A. Copeland has moved back from Oklahoma and was in attendance. All were glad to see him back.

Bro. J. M. Qualls has been appointed and inducted into the offices of Warden and Host in place of Oscar Bussell, who resigned and is night watchman at the Capitol.

The Rebekah Lodge contemplates quite an interesting meeting next Friday night. Several petitions from eligibles are wanted.

Spring Season 1911

Styles Fashions Fancies

MRS. FLORENCE E. FARLEY

Having spent weeks in one of the largest and best wholesale Millinery houses in the entire South, where I have given special and untiring attention to the modification of the extreme styles to suit the needs and wants of the Ladies, Misses and Children of Monterey and Putnam County. I have no hesitation in recommending to my trade this season above any other that I have been with you, having given more than careful attention to the purchasing of the stock as well as making the pattern hats, and feel that the styles that I show are just the correct fashions as displayed in the large style centers, brought to your very door, less the high cost of doing business in the big cities. I have watched our selling prices so that my friends may feel that they have every assurance from me that my goods are right, my styles are right and my prices are right. A careful look through will convince you. When thinking of Spring head-wear think only of

Yours to please,
